Story

Battle for the Planet.

Fight for humanity as Ulysses, a deep-space astronaut ship-wrecked on Earth nearly 2,000 years into the future. To his horror, a deadly breed of intelligent apes have evolved from mankind and now dominate the Earth. Hunted to near-extinction, the rag-tag human survivors huddle in fear of the Ape Empire.

Against impossible odds, Ulysses must infiltrate the simian society and halt the genocidal plan of Ape General Ursus to exterminate mankind forever.
Familiar faces like Cornelius and Dr. Zaius - even new terrors like mandrill assassins and renegade baboons - await in this pulse-pounding tribute to the sci-fi cinema classic. The future of the human race lies with one. It lies with you.

GAME SCREEN

HEADS-UP DISPLAY (HUD)

The Planet of the Apes HUD is organized so you can quickly and easily check your status anytime in the game.

1. Current Weapon/Item: (Top right) The weapon/item you are currently holding appears here. When you press the action button, you will use the item currently in your hand.
2. Ammunition: (Top right) The numbers appearing under the weapons in the inventory panel indicate how much ammunition Ulysses has left. Ulysses can pick up more ammunition from weapons that he finds along the way.
3. Health Meter: (Bottom left) The colored section of the meter indicates how much health you have. The meter goes from bright green at 100% health and then to bright red when your health gets lower. When underwater a blue bar will appear on the right side of the health meter and this indicates how much oxygen you have left. When you press the inventory button your exact health percentage number appears above the health meter. Your health can be replenished by picking up Medikits throughout the game. The Medikit can be used while it is in your hand by pressing the action button or while in the inventory screen by highlighting the Medikit and pressing the action button.

CROSSHAIR SYSTEM

All weapons in Planet of the Apes can be fired in two different ways. Weapons can be fired in the normal game mode and also by using the LOOK command to have greater accuracy. When using the LOOK command, you will have a crosshair appear in the center of the screen. When the crosshair turns red, you are within range to shoot the object you are targeting.

SAVING

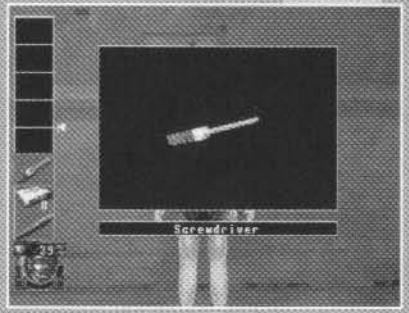

You are given the option to save the game when you complete a level.

USING WEAPONS AND INVENTORY ITEMS

INVENTORY SCREEN

You have two inventories in Planet of the Apes. The first inventory is for items that you will need for a few levels. The second inventory contains all of the important items that you need throughout the game. Pressing the left directional button while you have the inventory up on screen accesses this second inventory.

Some inventory items have long text descriptions. Pressing the right directional button while the object is highlighted on the inventory screen can advance the pages.

INVENTORY ITEMS

You will have access to a wide variety of weapons and items as you play through the game.

To select a different item from your inventory, press the inventory button and then scroll up or down to select that item.

WEAPONS AND ITEMS LIST

WEAPONS

Rifle

Rifles can be found with lower level soldiers. General Ursus's troops use several different models.

Laser Rifle

Carried only by the elite troops of the Ape Army, the laser rifles were excavated from the human ruins of the Great War. Kept in great secrecy, only a few apes have been authorized to carry such powerful weapons.

Club

Take clubs from fallen ape soldiers, as it will prove to be a more powerful weapon, than using your fists alone.

Knife

Used by certain apes and mandrills, a simple knife poses a great threat when turned against you.

Poker

When not used as a weapon by the apes, it can be a powerful weapon against them. Pokers can also be used to spread fires if they are heated in an existing fire.

ITEMS

You will find different types of items throughout the game. It's up to you as Ulysses to figure out what the items are used for. The following are examples of various types of items you will encounter in the game.

Health Pack

Health packs are valuable items. They will restore a portion of your energy if you are injured in battle.

Key

Keys will unlock previously locked doors and will allow you to gain access to vital parts of Ape City.

Key Card

The Key Card functions much like the "Key". It will only unlock doors with electronic locks.

Crowbar

The crowbar is primarily used to open crates, but can be used as a weapon against the enemy.

Ammunition

The firearms you take from ape soldiers have limited ammunition. Search for extra ammo anywhere you can find it.

Hologram Cartridge

The Hologram Cartridge is a rare item. Find them and they will give you clues to the past.

WEAPON & GAME TACTICS

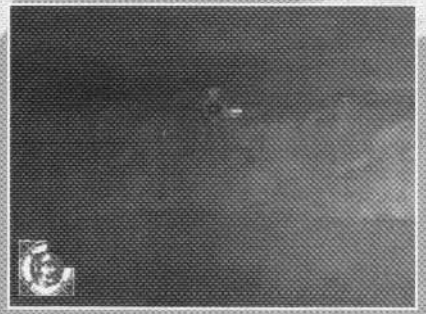

- Helping other slaves who are being attacked by apes will get you bonus items.

- Use the Crouch mode to bring up an audiometer that will help you to hear apes approaching.

- Using the Look mode while crouching will allow you to stealthily look around corners without being seen.

- Sometimes it is more effective to sneak past apes. Keep in mind that apes are much stronger than you and opportunities to sneak past them or lock them into a room can be very challenging, but will leave you in much better health.

ENVIRONMENTAL HAZARDS

Security Camera

There are several important things to know about security cameras. If the light on a camera starts flashing red and the camera starts beeping, it means you've been detected and the camera is attempting to focus on you. Duck out of sight before you're identified as a threat. Listen for it to resume scanning before stepping back into view.

Poison Gas

Beware of the gas found in the underground mines. While it has no effect on the Apes, who work in the mines, it will cause great harm to you.

Drowsy Guard

You'll frequently run into drowsy guards. Sneaking around them, while crouching, may offer a less hazardous method of getting past them. Be careful though, getting too close to a sleeping guard can cause him to wake easily.
